Farmer Talks

Seeds of Solidarity Farm and Education Center
November 5th, 6-7:30pm, Farm Center Thorpe House
Seeds of Solidarity is a 30 acre farm that specializes in no till farming and youth empowerment through environmental education.

Artifact Cider and Wheelhouse Farm Truck
November 12th, 6-7:30pm, Farm Center Thorpe House
Jake Mazar of Artifact Cider Company and Wheelhouse Farm Truck will discuss his struggles and triumphs as a farmer entrepreneur.

Book & Plow Farm and College Programming Mixer
November 16th, 6-7:30pm, Farm Center Thorpe House
Pete and Tobin of Amherst College’s Book and Plow Farm will discuss how to get students engaged in the field.

Many Hands Farm
November 19th, 6-7:30pm, Farm Center Thorpe House
Ryan Karb of Many Hands Farm will discuss his unique educationally driven farming practice, as well as soil science.

Queen’s Greens Farm
December 3rd, 6-7:30pm, Farm Center Thorpe House
Danya Teitelbaum will discuss winter crop production and marketing in New England. Queen’s Greens farm specializes in providing local winter salad greens to the Pioneer Valley.

Sponsored by The Lydia B. Stokes Foundation & The Growing Farmers Collective